

Here at Kitmaker we´ve improved on what were Standard meetings

Our company, KITMAKER, based in Vila-real (Castellon), has prepared to celebrate the GSMA Mobile World Congress at Barcelona from a bus. This idea has been coined as the GSMA KITMAKER TOUR

Vila-Real, 8th of February 2008.- KITMAKER based in Castellon will carry out all of it's commercial meetings in a luxury bus between the 11 and 14 of February, as a result of the most important occasion for the mobile telecommunication sector.

The bus will be located in the Plaza de España (Barcelona), next to the entrance of the GSMA Mobile World Congress. During their meetings, all of those attending will be able to enjoy a journey of approximately 45 minutes to see the most well known and famous sightseeing attractions in Barcelona.

Alter several years attending these types of events, KITMAKER has opted to innovate on demand. By applying the latest trends in Business to Business negotiations, this young business unites business with pleasure in this first edition of the GSMA KITMAKER TOUR.

The company, specialized in developing mobile phone contents, wants their clients to take a breather, far from the hubbub and discomfort that goes hand in hand with these types of congresses.

All of those who attend the bus tour will also take home with them an exclusive present, the general catalogue of the business, first hand information about the latest and most advanced mobile phone contents and a road map of the upcoming releases.

2008 has arrived full of new releases

This new year promises great success for this young company. Proof of this are its latest releases; among which Mobile Brain Trainer Plus, the second edition of one of KITMAKER's best selling games and The Idhun Chronicles, based on the wonderful novel from the prize-winning author Laura Gallego, stand out.

Among KITMAKER's imminent releases you can find games as Alien Invasion, a new camgame that exceeds the compatibilities of this genre or Hyundai World Race, the official racing game of the multinational, South Korean company.

More information at: <http://www.kitmaker.com/prensa>

Available items: Interviews, graphic material and demos. If you would like to try one of the games for yourself, please, send us your phone number along with the brand and model.

Press contact: Sara Serrano – sara@kitmaker.com – Mobile: +34 607 398 724